Charity trustees' duties and responsibilities

The charity trustees of Alloa Musical Players (SCIO) are jointly responsible for running the SCIO and managing its assets. The members of a SCIO also share some of the same duties of the charity trustees. Charity trustees and members should read our publication, SCIOs: A Guide, for full details of their duties and responsibilities.

In summary, a SCIO must by law do certain things, including:

- Publicise its status as a SCIO: you must let people know that Alloa Musical Players (SCIO) is a SCIO by including its charity name and (if the name does not already say so) the fact that it is a SCIO on its literature, emails and webpage's (where applicable), and also on documents issued by a third party on the SCIO's behalf. As a matter of good practice, you should also state your charity number on these documents. You must comply immediately with the duty to publicise your organisation's status as a SCIO.
- Provide information to the public: you must supply a copy of your accounts and constitution to anyone who asks for them.
- Provide information to OSCR: every year you must provide information to us about the activities of your charity and by law we must monitor all charities on the Register. Your charity must fill in an Online Annual Return and send this to us along with its accounts. You can find out more about preparing your accounts and reporting to us on our website www.oscr.org.uk.
- Get consent: you need to get our consent before taking certain actions, and must tell us about certain decisions you have taken. You can find out when and how to do this on the 'Making changes to your charity' section on our website and in our publication, SCIOs: A Guide.
- Keep registers of charity trustees and of members: you must keep a register of your current and former charity trustees and, if applicable, a register of your current and former members. We have attached a template (Appendix 1) which can be used to maintain your register of trustees. In certain circumstances, you must also supply a copy of these registers if you are asked for them. You can find out more about the registers of charity trustees and members in our publication, SCIOs: A Guide.

Next steps

We have sent a copy of this letter and the introductory leaflet 'Being a charity in Scotland' to all those trustees who have provided OSCR with an email address. Please distribute this letter and the introductory leaflet to any trustee who have not provided OSCR with this information.

You can contact us at info@oscr.org.uk or on 01382 220446 if you have any questions.
